Miss Trenholm Becomes Mrs. Capers There was a well-attended exposition mass meeting last night at the Nineteenth Street Baptist Church in the interest of the exhibit to be sent to Atlanta by the colored people of the District of Columbia, Communications commending the work With throngs of smiling friends looking were read from President Cleveland, Secon the marriage of Miss Lilla Trenholm etary Smith, Commissioner John W. Ross, and Mr. John G. Capers was solemnized to Secretary Tindall, ex-Senator Bruce and others. Mr. Jesse Lawson, the chief comday at noon at the Church of the Ascension. Rev. Dr. Elliott, who has known the missioner for the colored exhibit, acted as familes of both bride and groom in South chairman of the meeting and J. E. John-Carolina intimately for many years, per-

The speech of the evening was made by Rev. Geo. W. Lee of the Vermont Avenue Baptist Church, who declared he intended and said he was anxious to see the evidences of negro skill and genius put on exhibition at the coming exposition. The chairman of the ladies' auxiliary committee, Mrs. B. K. Bruce, made a few, remarks, and Mrs. Mary C. Terrell of the board of school trustees spoke of the pregress of the colored people in the south. Rev. J. Anderson Tâylor and Rev. A. F. Shields also made brief talks. It is thought the two exposition committees of colored Shields also made brief talks. It is thought the two exposition committees of colored and white people in the District of Colum-bia will act together in the matter of rais-ing funds for the entire District exhibit at The bride wore a traveling dress of ecru cloth, tailor-made, with a straw hat to match, trimmed with pink roses and vio-

Destroying the Elms.

Allow me, through your paper, to call the attention of the proper authorities to the pitiful condition of the magnificent elms on Lafayette Square, along H street, which are being destroyed by a worm. The leaves on several of the trees have been entirely eaten off; others are being attacked, and the trunks are infested with an army of small whitish worms, about half an inch long. WOODBURY LOWERY.
